Orange County Sheriff's Advisory Council (OCSAC)

Supporting the Sheriff's Department and Our Community

The Orange County Sheriff's Advisory Council (OCSAC) plays a vital role in supporting the Orange County Sheriff's Department through community partnerships and philanthropic initiatives.

As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, OCSAC provides financial assistance, resources, and community engagement to enhance public safety and bridges the gap between law enforcement and community.

Membership Information

The Council is composed of community leaders dedicated to advancing OCSAC's mission and programs. Membership provides an opportunity to directly support public safety initiatives – though it does not guarantee an officer or director position. Members in good standing may, however, be considered for leadership roles in the future.

Becoming a member also does not guarantee automatic admission upon donation; applications must be reviewed and endorsed.

Application Process

Once your application is completed, it must be endorsed by two current Council members in good standing, each providing a brief statement of support and signature.

Applicant must submit a resume and professional headshot with their application.

Please email the completed application, and endorsement statements to brandee@ocsac.org

Programs and Initiatives

Peace Officer's Memorial

The Sheriff's Advisory Council built and maintains the Peace Officer's Memorial, located at the Sheriff's Training Academy (15991 Armstrong Avenue, Tustin, CA). The memorial honors every peace officer who has made the ultimate sacrifice in the line of duty throughout Orange County's history.

Each year, OCSAC hosts a memorial ceremony for family members and friends to gather, reflect, and pay tribute to the fallen.

Project 999

In 1980, OCSAC established the Project 999 Fund, which provides financial and emotional support to Orange County officers and their families who are killed or injured in the line of duty.

To date, Project 999 has raised over $2 million, assisting more than 40 families — including covering funeral expenses for fallen Huntington Beach Officer Nicholas Vella.

Medal of Valor

Each year, OCSAC hosts the Medal of Valor Luncheon to honor and celebrate public safety officers who perform acts of extraordinary courage and heroism.

This prestigious ceremony recognizes those who have gone above and beyond in service to our community.

OCSAC members take an active role in reviewing nominations, securing sponsorships, and promoting the event.

Drug Use is Life Abuse

Through the Drug Use Is Life Abuse campaign, OCSAC partners with law enforcement professionals to educate students, teachers, and parents on the dangers of drug abuse.

In collaboration with local schools and educational leaders, deputies lead "Above the Influence" sessions designed to help youth and families make informed, drug-free choices.

Since 1988, OCSAC has also been a key organizer of Red Ribbon Week in Orange County — distributing complimentary Red Ribbon wristbands to students across the county.

The Orange County Sheriff's Advisory Council is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization independent from the Orange County Sheriff's Department. We do not engage in "pay-to-play" practices, and donations do not result in special treatment or benefits.

Acknowledgments & Waiver

By applying for membership in the Orange County Sheriff's Advisory Council, I acknowledge and agree to the following:

- I will not be granted any peace officer powers or the right to carry a firearm.
- I will not seek or expect special treatment from Orange County Law Enforcement Agencies or other Agencies.
- Membership is voluntary and uncompensated; I will not receive wages or benefits for my service.
- The Council reserves the right to revoke membership at any time, with or without prior notice.

Additionally, I understand that I may be authorized to tour the Orange County jails and other non-public facilities, contingent upon successful completion of a criminal background check.

I consent to this background investigation and agree to hold harmless the OCSAC, the Orange County Sheriff's Department, and the County of Orange — including their officers, agents, and employees — from any liability related to the investigation or my participation as a member.

Commitment to Integrity

OCSAC is an independent nonprofit organization, unaffiliated with the Orange County Sheriff's Department.

We do not engage in "pay-to-play" practices, and donations or memberships do not result in preferential treatment.

Our mission is to honor, assist, and strengthen the Orange County Sheriff's Department through service, transparency, and community partnership.
